

What is Climate Ready Providence?

Updated climate projections for key climate factors: extreme temperatures, sea level rise, extreme precipitation & storms.

Comprehensive vulnerability assessment of current & future risks from extreme temperatures, sea level rise, stormwater flooding, extreme precipitation & storms for Providence's people, buildings, infrastructure & economy.

Neighborhood focus areas

applies vulnerability assessment at the neighborhood level to understand how different parts of the city are affected

Climate Resilience Roadmap

Specific policy, program, and investment steps to address the risks identified in the vulnerability assessment, including list of priority infrastructure projects